What comes to mind when a corporate board member sits on a nonprofit board?

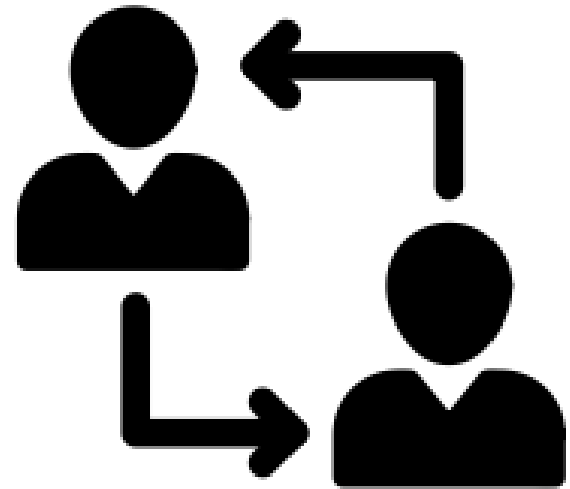

What issues might arise with a corporate board member?

How is it different from any other board member?

Making the most of a corporate board member on your board.

How can a nonprofit help corporations understand the benefits to the corporation with an employee serving on a nonprofit board?

Two questions:

Develop the ask for a nonprofit to seek a corporate member.

Develop the benefits for why your corporation should participate in board service.
