Banking Hall

Formerly the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, this LEED® Certified™ event space is included in the National Register of Historic Places, and is one of San Francisco's significant cultural landmarks.

The Banking Hall is a renowned event space showcasing intricate 1920's chandeliers, fine brass doors, and stately Corinthian columns.

Additional room rentals on the first floor expand the possibilities for your Banking Hall event. The second floor Conference Center is an exclusive meeting and networking space.
